Editorial: STAP International Journal of Accounting and Business Intelligence

Zalailah Salleh

¹ Universiti Malaysia Terengganu, Terengganu, Malaysia, Faculty of Business, Economics and Social Development

Dear Readers,

It is with great pleasure that we introduce to you our upcoming journal, "STAP International Journal of Accounting and Business Intelligence." This journal is dedicated to exploring the advancements in the field of Accounting and Business Intelligence and providing a platform for researchers and scholars to exchange ideas, fostering progress in the area of Accounting and Business Intelligence. On behalf of the editorial team, I extend our heartfelt gratitude and a warm welcome to the scholars, experts, researchers, and readers who support and follow our journal.

Purpose of the Journal

The Accounting and Business Intelligence aims to promote the development of Accounting and Business Intelligence fields, enhance the research level of Accounting and Business Intelligence, and strengthen academic exchanges on an international scale. We are committed to building an open, inclusive, and innovative platform for researchers in the field of Accounting and Business Intelligence to present their findings, share experiences, and exchange ideas.

Content and Directions

The Accounting and Business Intelligence will cover the following main two areas:

(1) Accounting Field

- Financial Accounting

- Managerial / Management Accounting

- Auditing

- Taxation

- Accounting Information Systems (AIS)

- Corporate Governance and Ethics

How to cite the article

(2) Business Intelligence Field
- Business Performance Management (BPM)
- BI Applications across Industries
- Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning in BI

Academic Standards

We uphold rigorous academic standards and peer review processes to ensure that each published article is of high quality and innovation. We encourage original research and welcome in-depth analysis and critical thinking on existing g theories. At the Journal of STAP International Journal of Accounting and Business Intelligence, we are committed to exploring these frontiers, encouraging multidisciplinary research, and providing a platform for thought leaders and practitioners to shape the Accounting and Business Intelligence future. The STAP International Journal of Accounting and Business Intelligence welcomes active contributions from researchers and scholars. We invite submissions covering a wide range of topics in Accounting and Business Intelligence.

Corresponding author
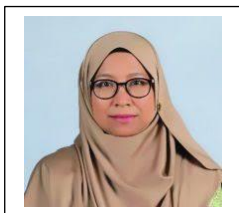

Prof. Zalailah Salleh

zalailah@umt.edu.my

Competing interests
All authors declare no competing interests.

References

None.

Biographies

Prof. Zalailah Salleh is a Professor at the School of Maritime Business and Management, Universiti Malaysia Terengganu. She holds a PhD in Accounting obtained from Griffith University, Gold Coast, Australia, in 2009. zalailah@umt.edu.my